Table - Coverage of Countdown indicators at national level and by key equity stratifiers.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Family planning users</th>
<th>Composite coverage of selected interventions and corresponding coverage gap (how much is needed to reach universal coverage), by wealth quintile.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Family planning users | Quality of care for all babies BCG vaccine DTP3 vaccine Measles immunization ORT and rehydration therapy Family planning needs satisfied Early initiation of breastfeeding Vitamin A therapy Postnatal care for all babies skilled attendant facility consultation |}

Figure 1 - Coverage levels in the poorest and richest quintiles for selected interventions along the continuum of care.

Figure 2 - Coverage levels in the five wealth quintiles for selected interventions along the continuum of care.

Figure 3 - Co-coverage of health interventions: percentage of children aged 1–4 years according to the number of key child survival interventions received, by wealth quintile.

Figure 4 - Composite coverage of selected interventions and corresponding coverage gap (how much is needed to reach universal coverage), by wealth quintile.