Table - Coverage of Countdown indicators at national level and by key equity stratifiers. Please see the example cover profile for guidance on interpreting the table and graphs.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Family planning need satisfied</th>
<th>Maternal education</th>
<th>Maternal mortality</th>
<th>Other maternal health indicators</th>
<th>Child care</th>
<th>Maternal nutrition</th>
<th>Birth outcomes</th>
<th>Mental health indicators</th>
<th>Communication coverage indicators</th>
<th>Composite coverage index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Source: Guatemala (RHS 1998 & DHS 2008)

Note: The composite coverage index was not calculated for this survey.

---

Figure 1 - Coverage levels in the poorest and richest quintiles for selected interventions along the continuum of care.

---

Figure 2 - Coverage levels in the five wealth quintiles for selected interventions along the continuum of care.

---

Figure 3 - Co-coverage of health interventions: percentage of children aged 1-4 years according to the number of key child-survival interventions received, by wealth quintile.

---

Figure 4 - Composite coverage of selected interventions and corresponding coverage gap (how much is needed to reach universal coverage), by wealth quintile.